

Warrington October 6th 1859

My dear Mrs Chapman.

It was my intention to send you a long letter by our friend Mr May, who sails for home on the 22^d of this month. but as usual I can only write a hurried note. On the 12th of this month I go to London, to attend the lectures at the Ladies College. I shall on every occasion that I can still continue the lecture and do all I can for our cause. I have lectured very frequently, in fact had more invitations recently that I could fill. Lectured on three successive evenings last week, which was rather too much for me and I am now with my friends Mr + Mrs Robson, for a little rest, then go to York, to lecture there. In reference to Mr Thompson, I must say that I made one mistake in the beginning I placed him in a wrong position. I thought he belonged to a class of men like Garrison, Phillips, Jackson, the two

Mr May's, Mr Wallcutt, &c. Men of the most reliable stamp. But alas!
I am satisfied he is not of them. I have not had time or inclination lately to think much about it, but I believe we both understand the most important facts in reference to the matter.
I wish Rev S F May, could remain longer in England, and help forward our glorious cause.

Very many thanks for your valuable letters.
Please remember me most kindly to all my Anti Slavery friends and with warmest regard for yourself, I am most truly yours
Sarah P Remond.

Can you give me
Mrs H B Stow's address, as I should like to see her when she is in London.

1859
Sarah P. Remond
